

CMI-EnBW Electricity Conference

Berlin, June 14 – 16, 2004

Programme:

Tuesday, June 15

9:00 - 9:10 Welcoming Remarks and Announcements

9:10 - 10:40 Liberalization of Domestic Retail Electricity Markets

Liberalisation of Domestic Electricity Retail Markets: The Norwegian Experience

Professor Nils Henrik von der Fehr, University of Oslo

10:40 - 11:00 Coffee Break

11:00 - 12:30 Global Climate Policy

Global Climate Policy: Seeking Coherence

Henry Jacoby, MIT

12:30 - 14:00 Luncheon

14:00 –
15:30

Blackouts, Reliability, and Transmission

Lessons from Italy's blackout of September 28, 2003

Dr. Pippo Ranci, Authority for Electricity and Gas, Italy

Systemic reasons for cascading blackouts in interconnected systems

Professor Janusz Bialek, University of Edinburgh

15:30 - 16:00 Coffee Break

16:00 - 17:30 Electricity Liberalization and the New Energy Directive

German electricity liberalization

Professor Ulrich Büdenbender, University of Essen

Electricity Liberalisation and the New Directive

Dr. Boaz Moselle, Office of Gas and Electricity Markets, U.K.

Wednesday, June 16

9:00 - 10:30 Allowance Allocation and Emissions Trading

Allowances Allocation and Emissions Trading

Dr. Felix Matthes, Öko-Institut e.V

Allowance allocation: does it matter?

Dr. A. Denny Ellerman, MIT

11:00 - 12:30 Lessons from Liberalization

Electricity market liberalization: lessons learned from the U.S.

Professor Paul L. Joskow, MIT

Lessons from Liberalization

Professor David Newbery, University of Cambridge