

Energy and Environment Seminar Programme

Easter Term 2008

Faculty of Economics

Seminars start at 12:30. Please note the different rooms

28 th April	Chongqing Kang (Tsinghua University) Towards an economic and secure electrical power system in China Room 1 Lecture Block, Sidgwick Site
5 th May	Malcolm Grimston (Chatham House) Risk perception – have we got it back to front? Room 1 Lecture Block, Sidgwick Site
12 th May	Vlad Parail (EPRG) Implications of Transmission Access Arrangements in the UK Electricity Market William Yu (EPRG) Does weather explain quality and cost performance? An analysis of UK electricity distribution companies Room 1 Lecture Block, Sidgwick Site
19 th May	Neil Strachan (Kings College London), E4 modelling of long-term - 60% CO2 reduction scenarios for the UK Room 1 Lecture Block, Sidgwick Site
26 th May	Michael Pollitt (Judge Business School and EPRG), Efficiency Analysis for Regulatory Price Controls: Experiences to date and future prospects Meade Room
2 nd June	Pierre Noel & Chyong Chi Kong (EPRG) Russian gas and Gazprom in Europe Meade Room
9 th June	Rutger-Jan Lange (EPRG) The option value of learning-by-doing Aurelie Méjean (EPRG) Modelling the costs of biofuels Meade Room
16 June	Bernard Sinclair-Desgagné , (HEC Montréal) The energy sector and the eco-industry Meade Room