

Energy and Environment Seminar Programme
Michaelmas 2010
Judge Business School

Seminars start at 12:30. Please note the different rooms

- 11th October David Newbery (EPRG) Supporting Innovation W2.01
- 18th October Scott Kelly (EPRG) Do homes that are more energy efficient consume less energy W2.01
- 25th October Erkan Erdogdu (EPRG) The impact of power market reforms on convergence towards the average price-cost margin: a cross country panel data analysis Philip Koenig (EPRG) Modelling Correlation in Carbon and Energy Markets W2.01
- 1st November Robert Ritz (Department of Economics) Environmental regulation and firm profits Perceval Room, The Pitt Building
- 8th November Tao Zhang (University of Nottingham), Modelling office building energy consumption: An agent-based approach Perceval Room, The Pitt Building
- 15th November Patrick Caiger-Smith (Green Energy Options) Technology for Demand Reduction W2.01
- 22th November Carola Hammer (Technischen Universität München) Estimating the short-term impact of the European Emission Trade System on the German energy sector W2.01
- 29th November Elcin Akcura (EPRG) Payment Vehicle Effects on Willingness to Pay for Renewable Energy Irina Shaorshadze (EPRG) Energy efficiency, "smart" energy and quality of services: preliminary analysis of the 2010 EPRG survey results W2.01