

Energy and Environment Seminars

Lent Term 2006

Judge Business School

Date	Speaker	Title	Room
23 January	David Newbery	Climate change policy and its effect on market power in the gas market	W4.02
30 January	David Reiner	Recent evidence of public opinion on energy issues and designing a new poll on energy security	W4.02
6 February	Paul Nillesen (PWC Netherlands)	Lessons from the unbundling of electricity distribution and supply in New Zealand	W4.02
13 February	Round Table Discussion	Next steps for EU/UK energy policy	W4.02
20 February	Sam Van Vactor	New roles for pumped storage? A study from Southern California	W4.02
27 February	Terry Barker/Tim Foxon	The macroeconomic rebound effects of energy-efficiency policies in the UK 2000-2010	W4.02
6 March	Tooraj Jamash	Benchmarking European Gas Transmission Networks	W4.02
13 March	Ed Flippen McGuireWoods, University of Virginia, Duke University, University College London	Wholesale market development in PJM and New England: an update	LT2

Seminars begin at 12.30

