

EPRG Energy & Environment Seminar Programme
Lent Term 2015

On Mondays starting at 12:30 (Weeks 1-7) or 13:00 (Week 8)

- 19 January Miguel Morin (Cambridge INET) The Labor Market Consequences of Electricity Adoption: Concrete Evidence from the Great Depression
(Faculty of Economics, Marshall Room, 12:30–13:30)
- 26 January Michael Pollitt (Cambridge JBS) Energy Prices: Is a Price Freeze a Sensible Way to Restore Trust in the Market?
(Judge Business School, W2.01, 12:30–14:00)
- 2 February Sam Fankhauser (LSE) What Drives the Passage of Climate Change Legislation?
(Judge Business School, Keynes House 107, 12:30– 13:45)
- 9 February Arjun Mahalingam (Cambridge JBS) Assessment of Price-Based Demand Response Policies in the Residential Electricity Sector by Agent-Based Modeling
(Faculty of Economics, Marshall Room, 12:30– 14:00)
- 16 February Ellen Quigley (Cambridge Education) The Future of the Norwegian Oil Fund – and the Planet
(Judge Business School, Keynes House 107, 12:30–14:00)
- 23 February Lynne Kiesling (Northwestern, visiting KCL) An 'Uber for Electricity': Institutional Theory and Practice for a Regulated Industry in a Technologically Dynamic Environment
(Judge Business School, Castle Teaching Room, 12:30–13:45)
- 2 March Thomas B. Nielsen (LSE) The Spatial Rules of Attraction in Petroleum Extraction: An Application of the Ising Model of Ferromagnetism
(Judge Business School, W2.02, 12:30–14:00)
- 9 March Danny Ralph (Cambridge JBS) Capacity Decisions in Electricity Production under Risk Aversion and Risk Trading
(Judge Business School, W2.02, 13:00–14:30)