

EPRG Energy & Environment Seminar Programme

Lent Term 2022

Tuesdays at 2-3pm

Online-only unless advertised otherwise – please contact EPRG Administrator (eprgadm@jbs.cam.ac.uk) for details

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| 18 January  | Jan-Horst Keppler (Paris-Dauphine University) On the socially optimal rate for the cost of capital in low-carbon electricity generation  |
| 25 January  | Pierre Noel (Columbia University) China CO<sub>2</sub> targets and the Paris Agreement   |
| 1 February  | Grischa Perino (University of Hamburg) The Market Stability Reserve in the EU ETS: Firefighter or fanning the flames?  |
| 8 February  | Dallas Burtraw (Resources for the Future) Quantities with prices: Price-responsive supply of allowances in emissions markets   |
| 15 February | Anupama Sen (Oxford Institute for Energy Studies) Electricity markets in resource-rich countries of the MENA: Adapting for the transition era  |
| 22 February | Christian von Hirschhausen (Berlin University of Technology) Invention, Innovation, and Diffusion of Nuclear Fission Reactor Technologies: Light water, SMR, and non-conventional reactors |
| 1 March     | Lucia Reisch (University of Cambridge) Behavioural insights-based policies for the energy transition   |
| 8 March     | Stefan Reichelstein (University of Mannheim) Capturing the economic dynamics of competing power sources  |

Seminar organizer: Robert Ritz (rar36@cam.ac.uk)